FIRM DISSOLVES

O. L. KILBORN HAS PURCHASED
INTEREST OF J. E. PETERS
IN GROCERY BUSINESS

The firm of Kilborn & Peters, dealers in groceries, meats, feed and fuel, dissolves January 1, Mr. Peters retiring. They have engaged in business at 1601 Vine street for six years past, a long period for California. Mr. Peters retires on account of ill health disposing of his interest to his partner, Mr. Kilborn, who will continue the business.

Mr. Kilborn came to Glendale in September, 1910, from Terminal Island, and bought the Heebing store December 17. It was then in a room 16x24, with two 12x12 living rooms in the rear. These were immediately added to the business room by taking down the partitions. On November 24 Mr. Peters moved to Glendale from Huntington Park to work for Mr. Kilborn. On December 1 the two formed a partnership which was continued till June 10, 1911, when Mr. Peters moved back to Mt. Carmel, Ill., to resume business in the city of his birth and early life. In February, 1912, he again felt the lure of the west and returned to California to again take up business with his former partner. In the meantime Mr. Kilborn had moved up from Terminal Island a large building he owned there and had it rebuilt on the lot at 1601 Vine street. This gave the firm 3250 square feet of door space, an increase of 2866 square feet in a little more than a year. There they have been ever since. As a striking commentary on the honesty of Glendale people, they say that though they have done nearly $170,000 worth of business since they began, six years and one month ago, most of it on credit, they have lost in bad debts less than three-fourths of one per cent. That is, of every dollars worth of goods sold on credit they received 99 3/4 c.

CANTATA SUNDAY EVENING

The cantata, "Messiah's Advent," which was postponed from last Sunday evening, will be given in the First Methodist church tomorrow, Sunday, evening. The large chorus, under the direction of Miss Isgreiz, has worked hard and faithfully to make the cantata a success. The ensemble and solo work promise a great treat.

Part I

Pastorale.
Solo, "Behold, I Will Raise," Miss Eva Thede.
Chorus, "Hark, the Glad Sound."
Solo, "The Voice of Him," Miss Marion Addison.
Duet, "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains," Miss Isgreiz, Mrs. Starkey.
Chorus, "O Zion that Bringeth Good Tidings."
Solo, "Hast Thou Not Known," Mr. Haines.
Quartette, "He Giveth Power," Chorus, "But They That Wait."

Part II

Pastorale.
Solo, "There Were Shepherds," Miss Marion Addison.
Solo, "And the Angel," Mr. Haines.
Chorus, "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings."
Quartette and semi-chorus, "Ye Shall Find the Babe."
Solo, "And Suddenly," Miss Margaret Lusby.
Chorus, "Glory to God."
Solo, "Behold There Came Wise Men," Miss Margaret Lusby.
Hymn (by congregation), Hymnal No. 125.
Chorus, "Brightest and Best."
Solo, "O May We Keep," Mrs. Starkey.
Chorus, "Sing O Ye Heavens."
Chorus, "Blessed Be the Name."
Benediction.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Eddie Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wood of 1641 West Seventh street, is spending two weeks at home on a leave of absence from the United States navy.

While a resident in Glendale Eddie was very popular among the young people and upon his return home for a visit he received a hearty welcome. He seems to be very much in love with the "bounding billows" and expects to re-enlist when his four years are up. The flagship San Diego will shortly go to San Francisco, where Eddie expects to be transferred to another boat.

DEDICATION OF CHURCH EDIFICE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Glendale, Cal., invites you to attend the dedicatory services of the new church edifice Sunday, December 31, 1916, 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. Corner Second and Maryland avenue.

SIX FLORAL EXHIBITS

GARDEN SOCIETY PLANS FOR COMING YEAR IN BULLETIN FORM

Before the end of next week the Glendale Garden Society expects to have its bulletin ready for distribution. This convenient handbook will contain details of the six floral contests and free exhibits to be given during the year 1917. Silver cups will be presented at the March floral contest for daffodils and iris. In April silver cups will be presented for the best roses. In May silver cups will be awarded for the best sweet peas. At each contest special silver cups will be awarded for the most artistic arrangement of any kinds of flowers in a bowl or vase—to be judged by an artist. Arrangements have also been made to provide three floral contests in the latter part of the year for asters, dahlias and chrysanthemums respectively.

The bulletin contains articles written by experts on the complete culture of all these specified plants, thereby rendering great educational benefit to the community. Rules and conditions for entries—a program of the next few months' activities—and various other interesting items will be found in this attractive booklet. Copies free to all members of the garden society and to intending competitors. Apply to the president, Glendale 394—Morris E. Caruthers, secretary, Glendale 395W, or Miss Olive Williams, assistant secretary, Glendale 330W. Sent by request by mail on receipt of two-cent stamp for postage.

The next meeting of the garden society will be held on Thursday evening, January 4, at 8, in the library of the Third Street school. Public always cordially invited.

SHOWER FOR MISS SMITH

Miss Nora Smith of South Louise street, who is to be married in January to Mr. Carrol Hare, was the recipient of a shower and the honored guest at a dinner given by Mrs. H. A. McPherson at her home, 1516 Pioneer drive, on Friday afternoon. Miss Smith and the girls present had gone on camping trips together for the past four years, and the dinner was delightfully reminiscent of the good times they had had together. The centerpiece on the table was a small tent which held the many lovely gifts showered on Miss Smith by her comrades and friends, which she opened after the last course was served. The place cards were miniature tents and autumn leaves and small stones scattered about the cloth carried out a very clever representation of familiar camping ground scenes. Covers were laid for the guest of honor, Miss Smith, and the Misses Myrtle Tummel, Lela Siple, Dorothy Stanton, Caroline Watling, Elsie Tyler, Lavinia Banker, Mary Hunt, Doris Latter, Vera McPherson, Ruth Stanford and Margaret McPherson and the hostess.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

A splendid treat is in store for all who attend the First Congregational church tomorrow evening when the choir will repeat the beautiful Christmas cantata, "The First Christmas," given last Sunday evening. All present were delighted and expressed their appreciation by requesting the choir to repeat it. The solo work, quartettes, etc., were most excellent and the chorus was particularly pleasing. The members of the choir are: Sopranos, Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke, Mrs. A. R. Chappell, Mrs. Blake Franklin; altos, Mrs. Fullerton, Mrs. W. A. Haines, Mrs. S. R. Frazee; tenors, Mr. Blake Franklin, Mr. R. W. Beers; basses, Mr. L. P. Abell, Mr. H. W. Yarrick; violin, Miss Frances Payne; piano, Mrs. L. P. Abell; director, Mr. A. R. Chappell; reader, Mrs. E. H. Willisford.

NEW YEARS PARTY

A New Years party was held Friday night at the residence of Mrs. A. Meyers, 734 South Adams street, in honor of her daughter, Miss Martha Meyers. The house was decorated handsomely with holly and carnations, the Christmas colors being effectively carried out. Games and dancing were the features of the evening. Refreshments were served at 10:30, after which dancing was again resumed. Those present were Misses Martha Meyers, Anna May Flower, Dorothy Brown, Hazel Wilson, Muriel McKenzie, Margaret Crawford and Corinne Heacock; Messrs. James McGowen, Gay Bennett, Charleston White, Paul Planette, Frank McGillis, Thomas Lyons, Ralph Current, Claude Hennon, Clayton Card, and Edward Newcomb.

ARREST OF MRS. BARRETT EXPECTED

LOS ANGELES DETECTIVE WILL TAKE "MURDERED" WOMAN INTO CUSTODY WITHIN A FEW HOURS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PHOENIX, Arizona, Dec. 30.—Detective Zimmer of Los Angeles expects to arrest Mrs. Benton Barrett here within a few hours. The plot whereby Mr. Barrett was given cocaine and made to believe he had murdered his wife and step son at Santa Monica some weeks ago has been exposed. It was planned to have the old man commit suicide while under hypnotic influence, so that the wife could collect $50,000 life insurance.

THIEVES MAKE $20,000 HAUL

PROPRIETOR OF LOS ANGELES LOAN OFFICE ASSAULTED, BEATEN AND ROBBED THIS MORNING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30.—Two men this morning assaulted and beat L. Joseph, proprietor of the Square Deal Loan Office on Main street, and after binding him stole diamonds and money to the value of $20,000 from the safe and escaped. Joseph's skull was fractured by being beaten with an iron bar and he may die. He was also shot through the arm.

ALLIES REFUSE TO NEGOTIATE

FORMAL NOTES HANDED TO NEUTRAL DIPLOMATS
CHARGE GERMANY'S PROPOSAL IS WAR MEASURE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Dec. 30.—The Allies have formally refused to enter into peace negotiations with Germany without knowing the conditions of the Teuton proposal. Notes replying to Germany handed to neutral diplomats charge that the German proposal appears more like a war measure than a peace proposal. They express resentment at Germany's efforts to place the responsibility for the war on the entente allies and charge Germany with direct responsibility in refusing to negotiate with the Allies in preventing the war.

KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

SANTA FE TRAIN COLLIDES WITH AUTO, CAUSING DEATH OF MISS LOIS WOOD AT RIVERSIDE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

RIVERSIDE, Cal., Dec. 30.—Miss Lois Wood, aged 18, was killed and Fred Smith was injured when the auto in which they were riding was struck by a Santa Fe train last night when the young people were on their way to a High School dance. Buildings near the crossing where the accident took place hide approaching trains from motorists.

TEST ARMY APPLIANCES

SALMON AND COYLE WIN IN CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHT TRYING OUT FLYING EQUIPMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—Aviators Salmon and Coyle were the first of twelve army aviators to reach here after a cross-country flight of 115 miles from Hempstead, Long Island. Four minutes later six other crews arrived. The flight was not a race but was made to test appliances offered to the government. All the aviators used fast military tractors.

GERMAN ADVANCE IN ROUMANIA

TEUTONS MAKE PROGRESS ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT
FROM DOBRUDJA TO WALLACHIA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, Dec. 30.—The German troops are advancing along the entire Wallachian front from Dobrudja to Wallachia. Von Mackensen's troops are making headway at practically every point in the line. The attack on the Sereth line is being pressed with vigor.

WILSON CONFERS WITH NEWLANDS

PRESIDENT IS BELIEVED TO BE ANXIOUS FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION ON THE RAILROAD SITUATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 30.—President Wilson made seven trips to the Capitol this afternoon to consult with Chairman Newlands of the Interstate Commerce Commission, who is in charge of the administration's railway program. It is believed that the president is anxious to learn what chance there is of immediate action on the railway question.

RANDALL A LEADER

OUR CONGRESSMAN IS MAN OF INFLUENCE IN ADMINISTRATION CIRCLES

A few weeks ago California received unusual attention by reason of its part in the re-election of President Wilson, an unprecedented election when the States of the East and Middle West were not a factor in determining results. California is again to the front in the person of Congressman Randall. Not only is he a national figure and widely known for his work in congress in behalf of state prohibition but just at the present time he is a central figure in the organizing of congress and will be an important factor during this session. The Associated Press gives us these figures as to the political status of congress, 212 Democrats, 213 Republicans, 2 contested seats, 6 independent members holding the balance of power. Congressman Randall is one of the six and a leader. The ninth congressional district, including Glendale, thus occupies an important position. And we are very fortunate in having a man of the caliber and character of Chas. H. Randall to represent us. For no doubt but he will use his increased influence for increased usefulness. At present he is pushing two very important measures, one to make the District of Columbia dry and the other to prohibit the liquor interests from using the mails to push their wet goods into dry states. The prospect appears bright to win both points and thus drive two more nails in the coffin of old John Barleycorn.

FUNERAL OF J. R. FRANKLIN

The funeral of James Randolph Franklin, who died at his residence, Third and Belmont streets, on Tuesday the 26th, was held in Los Angeles on Thursday morning at 11:30 o'clock. The deceased was born in Sumner county, Tenn., on May the 5th, 1834. As a young man he loved the spirit of adventure. He was among the hosts who came to California in '49. Later returning to the southland he was married to Miss Nellie Hibbitt in 1857. Through a long and eventful career she has been a true helpmate. To this union there were born six children, three of whom with Mrs. Franklin survive the husband and father.

With the outbreak of the Civil war Mr. Franklin joined the Confederate army and for four years fought for the southern cause.

A large part of his middle life was spent in Texas. With his family he came to California some seven years ago. For nearly two years Mr. and Mrs. Franklin and a son have resided in Glendale. The deceased was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city and a regular attendant upon its services.

The funeral service was attended by many old friends and was held at the W. A. Brown funeral parlors, 1335 South Flower street, Los Angeles. The pastor of the local church, Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, officiated. The body of Mr. Franklin was cremated and the ashes shipped to the south to be buried beside his children.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

The younger group of Glendale's Camp Fire girls was entertained this afternoon at a Christmas party by Mrs. H. A. McPherson of 1516 Pioneer drive. The afternoon was delightfully spent in games and the enjoyment of a lovely Christmas tree, and dainty refreshments were served. Those in the group are Misses Marcella Miller, Madeline Love, Ruth Sprawls, Hetty Orth, Naomi Platt, Mattie Freeman, Nellie Rowe, Isabel Franklin, Betty Warner, Dorothy Peart, Margaret Brown and Dorothy McPherson.

WHISTLER SECURED

Another feature has been secured for the big vaudeville show to be given by the G. U. H. S. Alumni Association in the near future. Miss Margaret McKee, well known whistler of Hollywood, will be on the program. The executive committee is working very hard to make this performance a success and from the list of stunts which have been secured success seems assured.

NO PAPER MONDAY

Next Monday being one of the six holidays in the year enjoyed by the Evening News there will as usual be no paper published on that date.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Sunday. Killing frost Sunday morning.

JUNIOR DANCE

MASONIC HALL THE SCENE OF BEAUTY AND REVELRY
LAST NIGHT

"That was some dance," yawned a junior late this morning as he awakened with pleasant memories of the preceding evening.

"That was some dance," yawned the junior across the street about the same time, as he got up to see whether it was breakfast or dinner that his stomach was demanding.

And it was some dance. Juniors today are receiving congratulations on the most successful dance of the year staged last night at the Masonic Temple.

The music, that all important factor of a good dance, was the best yet heard in Glendale. The "Barbary Coast Orchestra" is a live wire.

The decorations were above par, and speak well for the artistic ability of the junior decoration committee. The hall was neither over decorated, as might be expected at a holiday affair, or under decorated. The cozy corner, despite the big high backed chaperon's chair, was a popular spot throughout the evening. The moon for the dark numbers was loaned by L. W. Chobe. It could not be distinguished from the real thing.

In summing up the features of this jolly affair the punch must not be omitted, either. It was ideal.

And the chaperones should come in for their share of the praise, for without their generosity the merry-makers might have had to go home at midnight. That would never do for a New Years hop.

The crowd was one of the largest ever seen at the Masonic Hall and one of the jolliest. The most important fact about the dance was that everybody had the time of their lives. After all, that is what counts.

BIRTH RECORD

The births recorded at the city clerk's office has just reached 100 for the year. This is the first year that a record of the births in Glendale has been kept and the physicians are somewhat careless about recording them, so this does not represent the real number of births in this city during the year as there have been a great many more that have not been recorded by the attending physicians. The recorded deaths for the year are 141, an increase over previous years as they have not before been over 100. Recent births recorded are: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Addison Potter, La Crescenta, a boy, born December 21; Taroichi Saito, a Japanese farmer and wife, a girl, born December 17; Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Van Kolken, a girl, born December 11.

VISITING IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Root of Oregon are visiting at the home of their son, Mr. W. D. Root, of 735 Verdugo road. They recently enjoyed visiting the San Diego exposition and are planning to see the Pasadena Rose Tournament on New Years day for the first time.

FRESH PAINT

The Pacific Electric depot at Brand boulevard and Broadway is being repainted. Evidently the P. E. officials could not withstand the brighten up spirit of Christmas. Painters are already busy at the ceiling of the veranda, which will be pure white. The outside coat will be dark brown.

RETURN FROM CORONADO

Mr. Arthur R. Oliver and family of 1310 Burchett street returned Wednesday from a three-day trip to San Diego. Starting in their car Christmas morning, the distance of 152 miles was covered in seven hours. Difficulties were encountered at the Torres Pine grade because of the storm, but the little Overland fought the mud with bulldog tenacity and won, carrying its passengers into the Exposition City in time for the turkey. The Olivers made their headquarters with relatives on Coronado Island.

ELKS' NEW YEAR'S DANCE

Next Monday evening after a short business session, which will be over by 8:30, the Glendale lodge of Elks will hold a New Year's dance in their club rooms to which all members and their families are invited. The committee has many surprises in store for the ladies and a general good time is being planned for all in celebration of the New Year.

SUPERIORITY OF UNITED PRESS

From the war fronts in Europe; through foreign cabinet crises; in covering our own country's unprecedented election; from South America, Australia, and every nook and corner of the United States and Canada the Glendale Evening News has shown its superiority during the last year through The United Press, its telegraphic news service.

On the night of November 7 when all other news agencies, and newspapers throughout the country, announced the election of Charles E. Hughes, The United Press stood solidly on the returns it was gathering through its bureaus and correspondents. These returns did not show Hughes elected. The United Press was not stampeded. It was delivering reports from State after State far ahead of the opposition service. It was passing through one of the most severe tests of speed, accuracy and efficiency that had ever arisen, and it made good. When the turn came, The United Press was far ahead on developments in California, which finally clinched the re-election of President Wilson.

The beginning of 1917 finds the Glendale Evening News better fitted than ever before to give its readers the news of the entire world first. In August, 1916, The United Press established the first comprehensive South American news service and closed a long term contract with La Nacion, the leading newspaper of Argentina. President Wilson, Secretary of State Lansing, Foreign Secretary Murature, of Argentina, and many other government and financial leaders commented on this connecting of the two Americas through news channels as a history-making step of the highest importance.

The year saw many other important foreign developments of The United Press, including the signing of important contracts with leading Paris papers; the establishment of a connection with the Australian Press Association and extensions in England, Germany and Russia.

After an extended trip through Russia and a period in Petrograd, William Philip Simms, manager of the Paris Bureau, returned to France and was permanently credentialed to the British front.

Simms is the first American correspondent at the British front representing one neutral news agency exclusively.

Henry Wood is now with the French armies. He is credentialed to remain at the front permanently, and was an eyewitness of the recent French victory at Verdun.

Carl W. Ackerman was with the German army when the Teutonic forces made their victorious sweep through Rumania which culminated in the capture of Bucharest.

W. S. Forrest has on different occasions visited the British fleet. He sent personal eyewitness stories from Ireland during the revolt there.

From the Balkans, from Italy, Germany, Russia, England and France have come United Press stories—FIRST.

Here is a partial list of United Press scoops, beats and accomplishments published by the Glendale Evening News during the epoch making news year just closed:

Jan. 1—Ahead on sinking of liner Persia.

Jan. 4—Exclusive Wood story on battle of Mount Lowcen for mastery of Adriatic. First intimation that Montenegro was in severe straits. Mount Lowcen's capture was announced a week later followed by Montenegro's surrender.

Ahead throughout on stories of Ford peace ship expedition, Charles P. Stewart, U. P. staff correspondent, being aboard peace ship.

Jan. 14—Exclusive statement from Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg on Kaiser's condition, when latter was ill and rumors his conditions serious were being circulated.

Jan. 31—Exclusive Ackerman interview with Admiral von Holtzendorf chief of German admiralty staff. First public statement he ever made and declared it was impossible for England to blockade Germany effectively.

Feb. 1—Big cleanup on arrival of the British steamer Appam at Norfolk, Va., in charge of a German prize crew.

Feb. 5—Exclusive story from Rome, telling of Rumania preparing to join Allies. Other services followed 12 to 48 hours later.

Feb. 19—Clean scoop from Washington on Lansing's threat to demand Bernstorff's recall unless German propaganda alleging United States changed position in Lusitania case ceased.

Feb. 23—Ahead two hours on opening of German offensive against Verdun, and also led on second day's developments opening of one of the greatest battles of the war.

Feb. 29—Clean beat of several hours on sinking of French auxiliary cruiser Provence with loss of 1,000 lives.

March 6—Three hour beat out of Washington that Newton D. Baker was to be appointed Secretary of War. Followed up with exclusive interview from Baker stating his views.

March 10—Eleven minutes ahead on first announcement American troops to enter Mexico.

March 15—Exclusive interview with General Funston predicting long, hard campaign to catch Villa.

March 31—Clean beat on first report of first fight between Villistas and American forces in Mexico.

April 1—Exclusive Ackerman story that A. L. Elkus would be appointed Ambassador to Turkey to succeed Henry Morgenthau. Elkus was later appointed.

April 27—Exclusive story from Ackerman that submarine crisis had passed and that Germany would limit her operations pending a satisfactory settlement.

April 29—Ahead throughout on Dublin riots and Irish revolt, topped by extraordinary descriptive story of fighting from W. S. Forrest, staff correspondent on scene.

May 27—Exclusive copyrighted Simms' interview with former Premier Kokokovstov, on story U. S. would have difficulty in negotiating new commercial treaty with Russia.

WINS ENDURANCE RUN

The celebrated annual 24-hour endurance run of the New Jersey Automobile Club was won this year by an Oldsmobile Eight with a perfect score.

This makes the second time an Oldsmobile has achieved this honor, the first time being in 1908. This year's victory places the Oldsmobile in line to win the historic Shanley trophy offered for the contest nearly ten years ago, three perfect scores giving possession.

The contest this year was unusually gruelling, extending through the roughest part of New Jersey over roads made impassable by a heavy rainfall just before the start. The severity of the contest may be judged from the fact that but one of the entrants came through with a perfect score, all the rest being penalized.

The run this year was for 447 miles, a condition of the run being that it had to be finished in twenty-four hours to a second, and all controls made exactly on time. A great amount of credit goes to the driver, therefore, whose masterly judge of pace and ability with the wheel under adverse conditions proved a sensation.

The Oldsmobile was an eleventh hour entry in the contest, going into the fray without any preparation whatsoever, after 14,000 miles on cylinder model of the familiar Model

'14 Oldsmobile touring type.
Another Oldsmobile entry in the contest, driven by C. B. Wyckoff of Newark, N. J., finished with a penalty of five points. These were assessed on a technicality, however. Wyckoff having been unfortunate enough to get some water mired in his gasoline, which momentarily stalled his motor. Once re-started, he went through without trouble.

WAR SAYINGS

War is a science of destruction.—
John S. C. Abbott.

War is a crime which involves all other crimes.—Brougham.

The law is silent during war.—
Cicero.

If Christian nations were nations of Christians there would be no wars.
—Soame Jenyns.

Battles are never the end of war;
for the dead must be buried and the cost of the conflict must be paid.—
James A. Garfield.

The measure of civilization in a people is to be found in its just appreciation of the wrongfulness of war.—Helps.

War suspends the rules of moral obligations, and what is long suspended is in danger of being totally abrogated.—Burke.

War is one of the greatest plagues that can afflict humanity; it destroys states, it destroys families. Any scurge, in fact, is preferable to it.
—Martin Luther.

Every war involves a greater or less relapse into barbarism. War, indeed, in its details, is the essence of inhumanity. It dehumanizes. It may save the state but it destroys the citizen.—Bovee.

I hate that drum's discordant sound Parading round and round and round;
To me it talks of ravaged plains,
And burning towns, and ruined swains.

And mangled limbs, and dying groans
And widows' tears, and orphans'

And all that misery's hand bestows
To fill the catalogue of human woes.

—John Scott.

I abominate war as un-Christian.
I hold it the greatest of human crimes. I deem it to involve all others—violence, blood, rapine, fraud;
everything that can deform the char-

name of man.—Brougham.

War in men's eyes shall be
A monster of iniquity
In the good time coming.
Nations shall not quarrel then,
To prove which is the stronger;
Nor slaughter men for glory's sake.

 Roll and their mothers on Thursday afternoon in the church league room.
 The Christmas tree in the center of the room with gifts for the little folks and the beautiful decorations of red and green delighted the grown folks as well as the children. About thirty-five were present and all enjoyed the program which was in side.

Personals
 Mrs. Dick Mills is very ill at her home on Myrtle street.
 Mansford Barnes and John Sharpe left this morning for Newhall in guest of big game.
 Mrs. Gerard and children of Hollywood are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Phoebe Shear of Kenwood street.
 Mrs. S. A. Davis of 525 South Central avenue had as guests on Friday,
 Mrs. D. W. Crane and Mrs. John Reeves of Los Angeles.
 Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby are moving from the Wilson apartments into a bungalow at 321 South Louise street this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rockhold of 1430 Burchett street returned Wednesday evening from a few days' visit in Riverside, where they went to spend Christmas.

Mrs. D. G. Crofton Jr. left Saturday morning for San Diego in order to be present during the closing days of the fair and to visit her mother, Mrs. Alfred Clarke, and sister, Mrs.
 Adelaide Thorn.
 Miss Muriel Ennor of 1251 West
 Forty-eighth street, Los Angeles,
 who has been visiting her friend, Miss Naomi Platt, of 504 South Orange street, since Tuesday, returned to her home today.
 Samuel Perry, a Stanford student, who is spending the holidays with his parents in Los Angeles, was the dinner guest of Eugene Imler at Palm Villa Friday night and attending the junior dance at Masonic Temple.
 Glen Eyrie Chapter, O. E. S., held its regular meeting on Thursday evening. On account of the bad weather there was a small attendance but there was a good practice meeting, however, for the coming of the district deputy, who will visit the chapter on January 11.

The new church edifice of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Glendale, corner Second street and Maryland avenue, will be dedicated Sunday. Dedication services will be held at 11 o'clock in the morning and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, to which the public generally is invited.
 Misses Lillian Elias, Iva Hunter,
 Tessie Tag and Helen Becker, all Glendale girls who are attending Stanford University, have been spending the week with relatives and friends in Glendale. Miss Elias has returned to Stanford and the rest of the party will return towards the end of the holiday vacation.

Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Henry, Miss Eleanor Whiting and Miss Henderson of Los Angeles, and Irwin and Dwight Anderson, who arrived here recently from Illinois, were guests at the Calvin Whiting home, 1442 West First street, on Monday, enjoying the beautiful Christmas tree and good cheer provided at this hospitable home.
 About forty Southern California
 agents of the Provident Life & Trust Company of Philadelphia are enjoying their annual meeting and feed
 at the Pig'n Whistle this afternoon.
 Among them is our local agent, W.
 B. Kirk, who says that the "Provident" has had the most prosperous year in its history, having written over fifty millions of business.

As no one has responded either by letter or phone to the request for assistance in the matter of a float to represent Glendale in the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena on New Years day the committee thought it would be too large a task for them to handle alone and too expensive to hire everything done so abandoned
 the project and there will be no
 Glendale float in the big parade.

Friday night Ellen Beach Yaw, the noted singer who recently appeared in Glendale, was thrown from her machine in an automobile collision at Covina. She received only minor injuries and was taken to her home.
 A machine came racing down the road driven by a boy, with two women, and jammed into Miss Yaw's auto, throwing it into a ditch and completely wrecking it. The occupants of the other machine escaped injury, although their machine turned turtle.

The Glendale members of the Sierra Club joined the club early this morning for a trip to Switzer Camp up the Arroyo Seco, about 200 being in the party. They will stay tonight at the camp and those who so desire will take the trip to Strawberry Peak tomorrow and return to camp tomorrow night, returning to their homes Monday. Miss Eulalia Richardson of 805 South Central avenue is the leader in charge of this trip.
 Those who went from Glendale were Miss Loraine Mitchell, Shives Mitchell, Prof. and Mrs. Larkey, Mr. Bennett, Alexander Richardson, Paul Richardson and Miss Eulalia Richardson.

NEW YEARS SERVICE
 Mass will be held at the Catholic church, Seventh street near Everett, on New Years day at 8 and 10:30 a.
 m. The services being the same as those held on Sunday.

Facts and Comment
 Four new bills are being prepared by the state bureau for the prevention of tuberculosis to be placed before the next legislature and intended to give the bureau more power in its fight against the great white plague.
 An ordinance was passed by San Bernardino on December 26 making the city dry after July 1. The wets are said to be considering circulating petitions asking that the question be submitted to the voters at a special election.
 Dr. Augustus Sandberg, who represents the Johnson line of Stockholm, announced Wednesday that a fleet of fast freighters will ply regularly between Los Angeles and Danish, Norwegian and Swedish ports and that service will begin in a short time.

The death occurred recently of Mrs. H. A. Dowling, Southern California state superintendent of the secondary division of Sunday school work. Mrs. Dowling was the wife of Rev. H. A. Dowling, state superintendent of Sunday school work for Southern California.

The officials of the Interscholastic Federation of California at Riverside awarded the Bakersfield high school's American football eleven the California high school championship,
 San Diego high, Southern California champions, disbanded and refused to play for the state title. Berkeley high was awarded the state rugby championship.

At his home in San Francisco, Governor Johnson is laboring this week, writing his biennial message to the state legislature. It is expected this message—his last one—will be the longest ever prepared by the governor. The big work of the past six years in California will be reviewed in his message, it is understood, space to be given to each state office and department and the work
 it has done. "Unfinished business, such as revision of the taxation system, social insurance, development of California's water resources, land colonization, etc., will also be taken up, with such recommendations for action as the governor may deem wise. In view of the recent events whereby Johnson has been shoved into the national political limelight,
 his message will be of great interest.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAIN-MENT

The New Thought Sunday school was entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. M. Williams, 1228 Maple street, by her daughter,
 Miss Olive Williams, assisted by Mrs.
 A. Beamon, Mrs. C. Carmack. About twenty children and the same number of grownups were present and had a most delightful evening. There were two Christmas trees, one for the children and one for the older folk. The children's tree was a juniper tree covered with mistletoe, which Miss Williams had brought down from the foot of Mt. Gleason, near Acton, on Christmas day on account of its novelty and its prettiness, for the children. The older folks' tree was the usual Christmas tree. The children's tree bore a present for each of the children, besides popcorn and candy, and the other tree a toy for each of the grownups, who forgot their years in the merriment of the occasion. Before adjourning to the room which held the trees the following interesting program was given: Song,
 "Jingle Bells," remarks on Christmas, Dr. Riley of Hollywood; recitation, "Santa Claus Land," by the children; recitation, "Morning, Noon and Night," Edith Carmack, Genevieve Marek and Luella Myton; song,
 "Sing Me to Sleep," Elizabeth Webb, accompanied by Ruth Williams; recitation, "Thinking," John Young, Floyd Cormack and Charles Beamon; recitation, Dickie Marek; recitation, Ruth Hunter; violin solo, Marcella Webb; recitation, "Christmas Queries," Dorothy Carmack; recitation, "Before and After," Marjory Sherman; song, Ruth Williams;
 recitation, Charles Beamon; song,
 "Silent Night," Elizabeth Webb; recitation, Marcella Webb; recitation, Helen Hutton; whistling solo, Mrs.
 John Opid; recitation, Helen Hutton; remarks, Mrs. Ida Wilson of Los Angeles.

WHERE IS THE BANNER

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 30.—Who got the button, Ann's age, and who hit Billy Patterson probably will all be solved before the National Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage finds out who got the banner they swung before President Wilson from the house gallery. Also the question of where it is now. Press Agent Henry Swinehart, who engineered the affair that startled the joint congressional audience on that otherwise peaceful day, admitted today the union has about given up hope of getting back its banner. The day after its appearance in the house those who flung it to the legislative breeze only to have it unceremoniously jerked to earth, went to the sergeant-at-arms' office to get it back. They failed to do so. The next heard of the now historic emblem was at the Gridiron dinner several Saturday nights back, when the Gridironers pulled a burlesque of the incident while the president was addressing them. The same banner was used in the burlesque. News of this event gave congressional union officials hope. They buttonholed every Gridiron Club member they knew and some they didn't. They pleaded they wanted the grand old flag to use as a background when they were photographed in their new home upon the occasion of dedicating it. They did not get it.

UNEMPLOYED IN BUENOS AIRES

(By United Press)

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 1 (By mail).—Unemployment is so serious in Argentina today that tramps are roaming the country in small armies. Beyond seizing a number of freight trains to get from one district to another, the vagrants have committed no serious acts of violence but anxiety is felt lest grave trouble develop in the provinces at any time.

The governor of the state of Cordoba has already held a conference concerning the situation with the leaders of the various parties in the provisional legislature but without deciding on any definite plan. In the meantime President Irigoyen, at his own expense, is feeding all applicants for food in Buenos Aires.

HOMeward BOUND

Across the scarce-awakened sea,
With white sail flowing
And morning glowing,
I come to thee—I come to thee.

Past lonely beaches
And gleaming reaches,
And long reefs foaming,
Homing—homing—
A-done with roaming,
I come to thee.

The moon is failing,
A petal sailing,
Down in the west
That bends o'er thee;
And the stars are hiding,
As we go gliding
Back to the nest—
Ah! back to thee.

—Richard Le Gallienne in Harper's Magazine.

One of the features of the Imperial Valley Livestock Fair at El Centro, which closes tonight after a highly successful session, has been that of scientific testing of cows for butterfat production. The Imperial county farm bureau, under whose auspices the fair was held, has organized a cooperative testing association, which the Bureau of Animal Husbandry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, declares is the largest in the United States. The valley association has 4000 cows on test. The next largest association known has 2500 cows. The Babcock test is used and in this way the dairymen learn which cows are profitable and when they are merely "boarders." The butterfat production of Imperial valley during 1916 was approximately 7,000,000 pounds, making Imperial county the second largest in California in point of butter production.

Sunday Services at the Churches

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

11 a. m., the pastor will present a study of the Ninetieth Psalm. This will be the closing sermon on the Psalms.

7:30 p. m., the impressive and inspiring Christmas musical service will be repeated. The choir never appeared to better advantage than they did last Sunday evening. Many will want to hear them as they repeat the splendid program.

9:15 a. m., the Sunday school assemblies.

6:15 p. m., Junior Intermediate.
6:30 p. m., Intermediate.
Location of church, Third and Central.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, holds services in their church edifice, corner Second and Maryland avenue, Sunday morning at 11. Subject Sunday, December 31, "Christian Science."

Sunday school is held at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening testimony meeting at 8.

Reading room, 415½ South Brand boulevard; open daily except Sundays and holidays from 12 m. to 4 p. m.

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Seventh street, near Everett. Mass at 8 and 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 9 a. m. Baptisms at 2 p. m. JAMES S. O'NEILL, Rector.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Sunday, December 31, will be a great day for the Bible school. The regular lesson hour will be observed and then, instead of a preaching service, the Christmas exercises, postponed from last Sunday, will be held. Each pupil and teacher is expected to take a gift of some kind for the poor. The exercises will be participated in by all the classes and will be very entertaining. In the evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, the annual New Years eve meeting will be held to hear reports from all departments of the church, elect officers and listen to an attractive program. And, best of all, the new pastor, Elder Clifford A. Cole, will be present to get acquainted so he can take up with vigor the work to which he has been called.

On Monday evening, January 1, a beautiful Christmas cantata will be given in the Christian church under the leadership of Mrs. John Cole, whose wonderfully sweet voice is such an inspiration to all who hear her. Everybody is welcome to attend. Some excellent vocalists from Los Angeles will take part also.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

The services at the First Methodist church tomorrow will be in keeping with the season. At the morning hour of worship the pastor will preach on "Christian Astrology." Do you believe in astrology? Hear this message. There will be appropriate music by the choir. The people's church and all are always welcome.

At the evening service the large choir will give the cantata which was postponed from last Sunday evening. This cantata is the same as given by the Trinity Auditorium choir in Los Angeles. See program elsewhere in this issue.

Bible school 9:40 a. m.
Class meeting 12:15 p. m.
Epworth League 6:30 p. m.
Church location, Third and Dayton court.

CASA VERDUGO M. E. CHURCH

Julius Soper, Pastor
Sunday, December 31
9:45 a. m., Sunday school.
11 a. m., divine service. Rev. Benjamin Chappell, D. D., twenty-seven years a missionary in Japan, will preach a sermon on "The Closing of the Old Year."

6 p. m., Bible study class led by Miss Soper. Subject, "Hosea."
6:45 p. m., Epworth League.
7:30 p. m., sermon by the pastor. Subject, "Signs of a True Church, Whatever its Name."

WEST GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH

"Four Great Mountain Peaks" will be the subject of the Sunday morning sermon. This sermon is in response to the request of the board of bishops. All ought to hear this address. Special music by the choir. The evening service will be one of interest to all. The choir will render the sacred concert which was postponed from last Sunday evening. The pastor will give a sermonette on the subject, "Emmanuel." This service will open an old fashion "Watch Night Service." The Epworth League will have charge of the 9 o'clock hour. Light refreshments will be served by the ladies at the close of the League hour. The pastor will have charge of the closing hour and will preach from the subject, "A New Month." Old and young alike are invited to participate in this service. The Sunday school meets at the usual hour. This is a good place to spend an hour in Bible study. The week of prayer will be observed with services each night next week. A series of five sermons will be given on the subject "Why?" Special music each evening. 7:30 will be the hour.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The pastor will preach gospel sermons both morning and evening. Morning worship 11 o'clock. Topic, "The Time Is Short." Evening service 7:30. Topic, "The Real Meaning of a Happy New Year." Appropriate music at both services.

Sabbath school 9:30. Junior Endeavor 3 p. m. Intermediate Endeavor 4 p. m. C. E. meeting 6:15. Special evangelistic meetings begin January 8. Quarterly communion service and reception of new members January 28.

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Corner Fifth and South Louise streets. Rev. C. Irving Mills, D. D., rector.

Services tomorrow, Sunday after Christmas. There will be no service at 7:30. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Holy communion and sermon by the rector at 11 a. m.

The music will be furnished by the boy choir, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker, Mr. Young, Miss Duwan and Miss England. Mrs. Bosserman, director. Music, "Come All Ye Faithful," "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "Hark, Hark, My Soul." Anthem, "Oh, Zion, That Bringeth Glad Tidings." The offertory, soprano solo from the "Messiah" by Miss Volcott of Los Angeles. Organist, Miss Ina Whitaker.

THE NEW YEAR

Somewhere out in the gloaming, over the mountain's crest; Over the tops of the summits that tower between east and west; Somewhere back of the sunrise; somewhere back of the dawn, the New Year comes a-creeping—creeping and creeping on. Are we prepared to meet it? To place on its pristine page things that are worth the doing, deeds that are fit for our age? Fit for the age of reason, fit for the age of thought, worthy of long traditions, that the wise and strong have wrought? Can we greet the New Year's coming, conscious of strength and power, like men who know their duty, as men of the present hour? Let's search our souls for the answer; Let's search our souls and see, if the Truth of Truth be in us, "For the Truth shall set men free." The past is all behind us; the past is passed and gone; and like the Great Columbus, we must "Sail on, and on!" On to the better and better; Doing our level best, for that is the Great Commandment—that is the Great Behest. Has a Dear One loosed the handclasp in the year that's near its close? Let the memory cling about us like the fragrance of the rose, and cherish gentle memories of deeds both kind and brave, while the shadow of the mountains caress the new-made grave. So, by the great example of those who've passed from sight, and by the best that's in us, let us live the New Year right. Each day will have its problems; each hour will have its task. How to solve the thing of the moment is that which our souls will ask. For the moment is the pivot on which all Futures turn, The Present! Live the present—that's the lesson we must learn! If each moment is exalted with a noble thought or deed, then the dead past can be buried, for the future must succeed. Life is just the breath we're breathing; Just the heart throb, throb by throb; Just the love that we are loving; Just the heart breaks, sob by sob. Can't we soothe some heart that's breaking; can't we dry some eyes that weep; Can't we bind some wound that's bleeding; Can't we hush some grief to sleep? Hark! The New Year's coming—Nineteen Hundred Seventeen. Let us greet it! Let us meet it! Let us live it brave and clean. Pause a moment, Brothers, Sisters, e'er we turn the pristine page—are we chastened by our sorrows; are we valiant to engage; will we make The Now the pivot, the pivot of the age? If so, speed the New Year's coming; Hail it from behind the dawn; Call it with the voice of triumph; bid it come in triumph on!—Charles Newton Peirson.

WATCHES FOR PRIZES

Young people intending to compete at the oratorical contest are hereby notified that the contest will be held and prizes awarded on Thursday evening, January 4, at 8 o'clock, in the library of the Third Street school. The poem to be recited is called "Daffodils," by Wordsworth. To obtain one prize there must be at least five competitors, and there must be ten competitors for two prizes. This contest is held under the auspices of the Glendale Garden Society. Miss Merva Scott has kindly consented to sing. The new bulletins will be distributed to members and an informal discussion will be held on spring gardens. The public is cordially invited to this and all other meetings of the society. Annual dues, twenty-five cents; two meetings a month—and six floral contests and free exhibits in 1917. Slogan—"For Home and Civic Beauty."
